

Deliveries of The Bridge: There are three areas in Bradpole which have no-one making deliveries. There are 10 issues of the magazine in the year. The areas and number of copies are:
1) 1-12 Court Close [12] 2) 17-39 Court Close [23] 3) Pageant Close [21]
 If you are willing to do one (or more) of these areas. Please talk to John Adams.

The Friends 100 club: At a committee meeting it was noted that there are currently 71 paid shares in the club and the original idea was to have 100. Some members currently hold multiple shares and therefore have an increased likelihood of winning in the monthly draws. Anyone can become a member so maybe you have friends, family or neighbours who would be interested in joining for £12 pa. You could also consider increasing your chances of winning one of the monthly paid prizes by taking out an additional stake. See John Adams for information before the end of April (cheques should be made to The Friends of Holy Trinity Bradpole).

PRAYER FOR TODAY

God of glory, by the raising of your Son you have broken the chains of death and hell: fill your Church with faith and hope; for a new day has dawned and the way to life stands open in our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

God of Life, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection have delivered us from the power of our enemy: grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

READINGS

Acts 1: 34-43

Gentiles Hear the Good News

Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

John 20: 1-18

The Resurrection of Jesus

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

NEWS, NOTICES AND MESSAGES

Easter Greetings

Happy and blessed Easter to you all. Thank you always for your support and prayers.

Janis

Commemorative Flowers

The flowers in the memorial window are in memory of Dorothy Collins whose 94th birthday would have been on Monday 22nd April.

Christian Aid Inherit the Earth photo exhibition

Join us on a journey to the heart of the rain forest and learn about our work with indigenous communities in Bolivia at our new legacy exhibition in St. Mary's, Bridport from Thursday 26th April to Thursday 2nd May during church opening times. This will be the theme of the team service next Sunday.

Thanks

A big THANK YOU to all my helpers/cooks (they know who they are!) who give so much reliable support at the increasing number of catering occasions we are having. The service we offer is always much appreciated, but without 'my ladies' it couldn't happen.

Missing Smartie Tubes

The box, which normally contains 2 dozen or more labelled, empty, coin (Smartie) containers, is missing! These are for those people who want to make a regular contribution to 'The Friends'. If you know where the missing containers might be, please let Dave Kelley know (Tel 422797).

Hilda Gudge – President of 'The Friends of Holy Trinity'

Hilda was the longest-serving member of The Friends committee, having provided support to our charity for nearly 40 years. Hilda was thought of as a 'foundation member', having been present at the first meeting of a steering group in September 1979. The group was charged with the formation of The Friends, following which an appeal was launched for the restoration of the bells in 1981. From that time, Hilda continued to serve on the committee, was appointed vice-president in 1996, and president in July 2003. The dedication to The Friends is so appreciated, particularly bearing in mind the other varied tasks which Hilda undertook, supporting the work of the church. On behalf of the current members of The Friends, I express thanks for her advice and service over the years.
